Michols was a young man (not yet twen-Branson vs. Rodes will govern our judg-ment in this case. The second shows a suit on earth, previous to the unfortunate diffirent in a lesse of certain premises in the city of Baltimore, made in 1791, for ninety-nine years, renewable forever, upon an annual rent of £18, current money of Maryland payable in English golden guineas, weighing five pennyweights sixteen grains, at thirty- praise. five shiftings each, and this gold and silver at then present weight and rate established by weeks, and died in great agony from the COTTON. act of Assembly. The obvious intent of the wound which though at first seemingly no contract was to secure payment of a certain more than a slight stab, yet was sufficient in rent in gold and silver, and there by to avoid the fluctuations to constitution, and blight and blast, and whithwhich the currency of the country, in the er and de den the flowers blooming over the days which preceded and followed the establishment of our independence, had been but which has been so suddenly snatched subject, and also all future fluctuations inci- away from our vision as to leave the heart dent to arbitrary or uncertain measures of saddened and chastened, and to diffuse the It was argued in the court below that the rent due upon the lease, reduced to current gold and silver coin, was on the 1st January, 1866, $40, and judgment was rendered on the 27th June, 1866, for $59 17. This judganent was rendered as the legal re-ult of two propositions-first, that the covenant in the lease required the delivery of a certain amount of gold and silver in payment of rent; and, second, that the damages for the nonperformance must be assessed in the legal tender currency.

The first of these propositions is, in our judgment, correct; the second is, we think, It is not necessary to go at length into the grounds of this conclusion; we will only state briefly the general proposition on which it rests, most of which have been stated more fully in Broason vs. Rodes. and silver is, in substance and legal effect, a comparatively more productive mines of contract to deliver a certain weight of gold and silver of certain tineness, to be ascertained by court. Damages for non-perform ance of such a contract may be recovered at law as for non performance of a contract to deliver bullion, or any other commodity; but whether the contract be for delivery or payment of coin, or bullion, or other property, damages for non-performance must be asseased in lawful money -that is to say, in money declared to be legal-tender in payment by a law made in pursuance of the Constitution of the United States.

It wasnot necessary in the case of Bronson vs Rodes, nor is it neccessary now, to decide the question whether the acts making United States notes legal tender are warranopinion on that point, but assume for the metal. sessed, in the absence of any different underment in coin to guard agains: fluctuations in periority in working, the mediam of payment, warrants the in ference that it was the understanding of the | C.L. It would be unreasonable to suppose that damages, whether in coin or lawful mouey, severally, and judgements upon such accessements should be in conformity to. the stipulation of contracts in regard to the medium of payment. It follows that in the case before us the judgement was erroneously entered. The damage should be assessed at the sun agreed to be due, with the interest, in gold and silver coin and judgement for that amount, with costs The judgement of the Court of Common cause remanded for futher proceedings.

Policies Issued as Good a U. S. Bonds. Policies Valuable in Life as in Death.

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guarantees a definite surrender-value to every policy on which two or more annual premiums and have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every policy issued. Should any policy holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to par-ties insuring their lives. Among the advantages offered by the BROOK-LYN which thoroughly evince the determina-tion of the officers to make it the Most Liberal

Life Insurance Company in the United States

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over without extra premium or special permit.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRI-BUYION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Placker, now Actuary of this Company and has been adapted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVI-DENDS than ever before paid by a Lite Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses. 7th. No charge for policy or stamp.
The success which the BROOKLYN has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, it is a convincing proof of the confince reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.
